OUR STORY

Tanpopo was established in 1996 by a young couple that met in Japan. They returned to England with a spirit and energy to make quality, fresh sushi, and slowly introduced British customers to a whole new world of Japanese flavours.

Over the past two decades the interest in Japanese food has grown massively and Tanpopo has stepped up to cater for this demand.

A dedication to quality and authentic Japanese flavours is at the core of our business, so wherever you see our brand you can be sure something fantastically fresh and tasty awaits!
